Our postcard views have pictured the magnificent scenery of our mountain setting and the modern physical plant of Western Carolina College. The 1954 CATAMOUNT will now recall the familiar faces of the Administrative Personnel, the Faculty, and the Student Body as the mail-truck arrives with news of the year's events.

First we glimpse a headline story of the Dedication of the CATAMOUNT, and the top card in the mailbag records "The Hill"—the buildings, our President, the Administrative officers and assistants, and the Faculty.

A record-breaking enrollment gathered at Western Carolina in the Fall of 1953 to participate in activities as varied as the personalities of students. The featured events—May Day, Homecoming, Sadie Hawkins, the formal dances, and graduation—provided the high spots of the year, and Classes and Athletics completed the program.

Join us now in the post office as we read the evening mail.

DEDICATION

In the last minute rush to complete plans for graduation we are apt to think first of our professors and close associates, forgetting those persons who carry on the administrative responsibilities of the college. In recognition of her capability in performing the difficult duties assigned to her, and in gratitude of the thoughtful aid and consideration she has given to every graduating senior of this class and many others, the 1954 CATAMOUNT is respectfully dedicated to MISS ADDIE BEAM.

A native of Gaston County, Miss Beam came to Cullowhee as Assistant Registrar of Cullowhee State Normal School. She was graduated from the Normal School in 1928, and she assumed her duties as full time Registrar in 1933.

Miss Beam's years of faithful service span the growth from Cullowhee State Normal School with an enrollment of 161 to the present four year and graduate program for the 827 students of Western Carolina College.

WESTERN CAROLINA COLLEGE—This is the first year of operation under the new name. The college, during the 65 years of its life, has had several names. Each name characterized the purpose and scope of the institution of the particular period of service.

Likewise today Western Carolina College is a name which is more truly representative of the new day in the continuing life of the institution. A broader name for a broader scope of service—such is Western Carolina College.

Each student and each faculty member has an important part in making Western Carolina College more fully meet its mission of broader service to North Carolina, particularly western North Carolina.

CHARACTERS

May Day

This year, as before, the Western Carolina College campus heralded the coming of spring with a pageant honoring the Queen of May and her Court.

The amphitheatre furnished a natural background of evergreens for the ceremony in which President Reid crowned our monarch of 1954, Queen Eloise.

Miss Jarrett was attended by the Maid-of-Honor, Julia Smith, and the following members of the Court: Margaret Akin, Pat Alexander, Eddie Lou Terrell, Marjorie Woody, Mauriene Holton, Betty Mulkey, Joretta Walker, Caroline Crawford, Barbara Nichols, Marcia Williams, Sylvia Camlin, and Peggy Rich.

A faculty committee this year appointed thirteen Seniors to one of the most coveted honors attainable by college students—"Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." These students were chosen on the basis of leadership, scholarship, participation in school activities, and promise of success in future life. Among the represented fields were student government, athletics, and teacher training.

A short biography of these students elected to Who's Who appears in the Who's Who Yearbook, which is distributed throughout the nation.

HOMECOMING

On October 17, 1953, our campus was a "beehive" of activity. It was homecoming! The Big Day! . . . and the Catamounts were playing host to the highly touted East Carolina Pirates.

A large number of alumni was on hand, the dormitories were having open house, and splendid decorations adorned the lawns by the dormitories. An air of cheerfulness spread over Cullowhee and on to Sylva for the gala parade. All the organizations on the hill were well represented in the parade with the theme of "Beat the Pirates" dominating the scene.

All eyes were centered upon our Homecoming Queen, Marcia Williams and her lovely court: Eloise Jarrett, Eddie Lou Terrell, Joretta Walker, Julia Smith, Betty Jones, and Peggy Rich.

At the game, the Cats played a sparkling game, but finally succumbed to the powerful attack of the Pirates. The Cats held the Pirates to a 7 to 7 tie at the half, but the final score was 26 to 7.

All the events of the day built up to the big Homecoming Dance with music furnished very entertainingly by the College Dance Band. Old friends and pals then bade sad farewells and vowed to meet again next year.

SADIE HAWKINS' DAY

Senator Rosemary Gooney

Honest Abe's too young to leave his mother.

The annual Sadie Hawkins day has grown into a gay and festive occasion on our campus. On November 16 of each year the gals of the hill have their day. At high noon the love-starved femmies take off after all "eligible bachelors." Pandemonium then reigns—trees are climbed, mountains are scaled, and the "unlucky?" males are hooked. Their requirement is to escort their captors to the Sadie Hawkins Dance, which culminates in the wedding of Li'l Abner and Daisy Mae.

"Do you take this man?," says "Marrin' Sam" Montague to "Li'l Abner" Wilson "Daisy Mae" Nichols.

THE 1954 CATAMOUNT STAFF

Months drifted by hastily—there was a trial layout. This layout changed up to the zero hour of February 23. Pictures were taken—and were retaken. Staff members came—visited, gossiped, commented on pictures, and rushed away to histology and student teaching.

In one madly furious twenty-four hours from February 22 to February 23, the 1954 Catamount was completed. This final session began early—and ended late—after long hours of maddening arguments and, finally, agreements. Classes were sacrificed—but the staff worked faithfully. Our photographer haunted the darkroom—and lovely pictures were produced. Typewriters clicked noisily—and accurate copy was produced.

With appreciation to our staff and our advisors, to the office typists, to the Dowd Press, Inc., and to Charlotte Engraving Co., we present the 1954 Catamount.

STUDENT

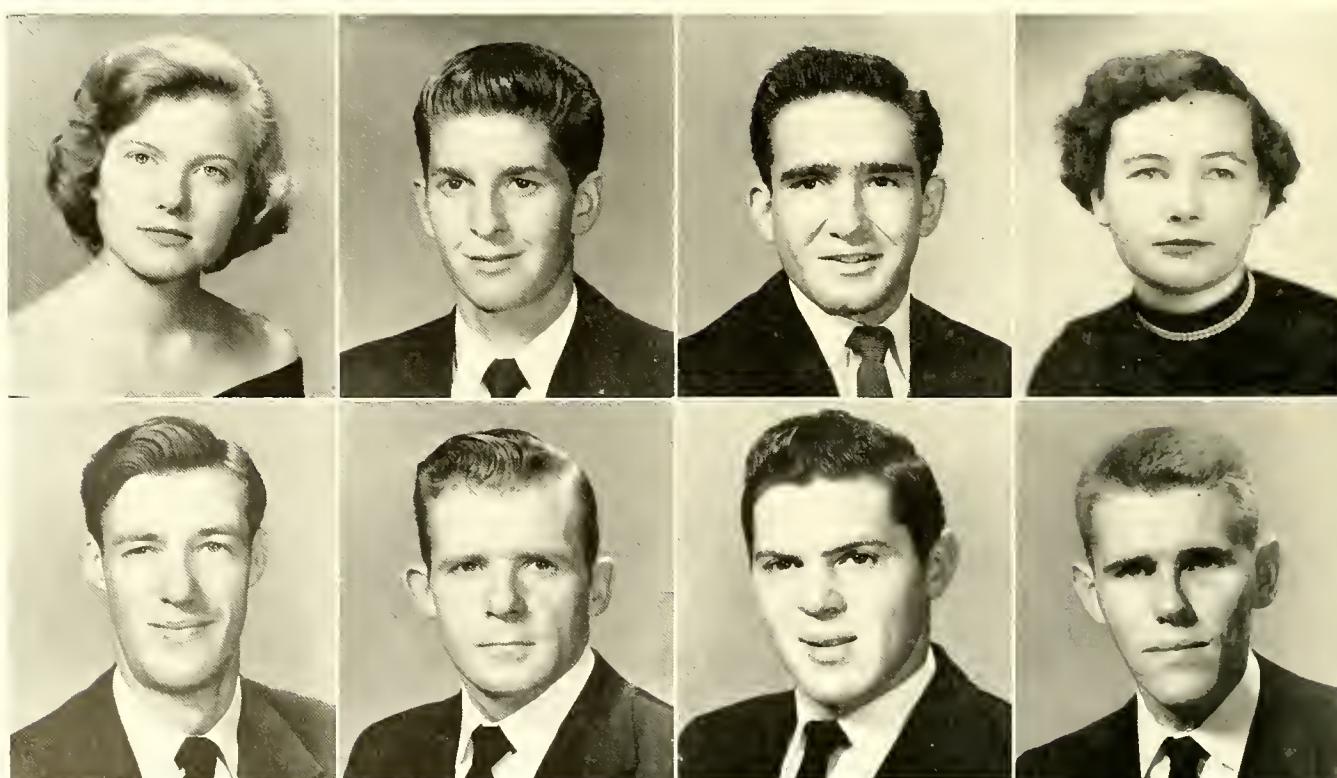

The Student Senate, the highest branch of the Co-operative Student-Faculty Government of Western Carolina College, includes representatives from the Men's House Government, the Women's House Government, the Day Student Government, and the four classes. In addition to these members, the administration sometimes appoints students to complete the ranks; otherwise, all are elected by the student body, and are responsible to them.

As the chief legislative body of the school, the Senate receives all rules and regulations which have a direct bearing on the students. It also supervises all college clubs and elections.

The president of the Senate appoints six senators to serve, along with six faculty members on the Judiciary Committee. This committee hears all student cases of a serious nature, and acts as the supreme judiciary body of the college.

It is the purpose of the club to promote a more thorough relationship between business persons and the students. To carry through this idea, the club makes several tours each year. This year the club toured the offices of two of the leading department stores in Asheville, the Dayton Rubber Company and the Welco Shoe Company in Waynesville. To climax the tours an all-day trip is made in the spring. Last year this trip was to the General Motors Assembly Plant in Atlanta.

At the installation of new officers in May a banquet is held at the Jarrett House in Dillsboro. The most worthwhile project of the club this year was the placement of business graduates. Representatives from the different companies were invited to our campus to interview students. This plan is to be continued next year because it has been so profitable this year.

An interest in the development of children prompts the activities of the Association for Childhood Education. Its members are the future teachers of the elementary grades, who, by expanding their work outside the classroom, seek to better prepare themselves for their job. This year the club has sponsored a story hour for the children during P.T.A., a lily sale for the benefit of the Crippled Children's Fund, a Carnival Party for the entire student body, a program for the pre-school children, and assisted in the booth for recruitment of teachers.

Since the initiation of the Dramatic Concentration two years ago, the Western Carolina Players do not function as a club. Most of the members receive credit in either acting or production of plays. Plans are now being made to reactivate the Theta Iota Chapter of the Alpha Psi Omega, national dramatic fraternity. Students would then be initiated after completion of some dramatic course.

The Fall Quarter production was "The Male Animal," and the "Merchant of Venice" was given Winter Quarter.

SENIOR CLASS

Soon we will bring to a close one of the most important chapters in our lives—a chapter whose pages are filled with memories of our college years. Those pages are filled with many things we hold dear: the catching of a quick cup of coffee in the College Shop—hurrying down the hill to class—walking with friends to and from the Town House—the football, the basketball, and the baseball games—Saturday night movies in the auditorium—and those after supper sessions on the rock wall. All these things we must now bring to an end. They are only a few of the important moments that we will remember long after we have left the campus of Western Carolina College.

To the class of 1954 will come new experiences which will be written in future chapters. To those rising seniors who will relive many of our experiences, we bid success and good luck.

As the last pages are slipping by, we look ahead to the future cherishing those memories of the past.

We play the supporting role to the seniors. We are inexperienced; yet we must take the parts which have been left for us by those who have gone before.

The end of these days here at Cullowhee are now in sight, after which, not one note can be repeated, whether good or bad. We have often had to learn through our own discordant notes, yet such wisdom is the greatest of all.

Those who have gone before us have played the role well, still our challenge is to better the parts and to aspire to higher realms of living.

With the end of our sophomore year comes the halfway mark of our educational pursuits at Western Carolina College. All has not been work, however. We have taken our places as part of the varied activities of the campus and made ourselves worthy of the fact that we are rising Juniors.

As time has slipped by, and as we have advanced more toward our goal, we have lost many of our classmates due to military service, secretarial graduation, marriage, etc., but the majority of us are still around, striving toward the final day of graduation.

Our class brought to the campus the largest number of frustrated freshmen ever to register at Western Carolina College. During the year we have met the new situation and feel we are ready to take on the role of sophomores.

It is with great expectations that we look forward to three more years college life. To those ahead of us, we say, "We are confident we will fill your shoes well."

Extra Point Downfall of Cats In '53

The football year of '53 at Western Carolina! Who, who witnessed it, will ever forget it? How close to victory! Yet how far! Looking back now, we can use the "inch is as good as a mile" even when it comes to winning football games. That infernal inch defeated us: that extra point conquered us: so close, but so far. Nine games we lost, to one lone victory, the lone star in a dark football night. By a little kindness of fate, the night might have been much brighter.

Let us examine the way fate and Fortune played with us. First, Wofford, to whom we lost by 7 to 6. One point! The season looked bright indeed if we could play Wofford to such a score. But it was September and Fate had just begun to twist the knife—to cut us down by the One Point Jinks. Four times during the season Fate worked on us. Remember? After Wofford came Appalachian 7 to 6, and Catawba 13 to 12, and then Lenoir Rhyne 21 to 20. And Fortune had her two games also: By one touchdown we lost to Carson-Newman (7-0), and also to Elon (13-7). Thus the Catamounts fell to the E.P. and the one touchdown defeat. The hope aroused at Wofford had now gone.

THIS IS HOW THEY ENDED

WCC 6	Wofford	7
WCC 0	Carson Newman	7
WCC 6	Appalachian	7
WCC 12	Catawba	13
WCC 7	East Tennessee	34
WCC 7	East Carolina	26
WCC 20	Lenoir Rhyne	21
WCC 7	Elon	13
WCC 18	Emory and Henry	7
WCC 0	Presbyterian	20

Abolishing E. P. Rule

But the shift of events had even more heart breaking things in store for us: Setzer and Long—two outstanding linemen—both left for the Army. We never recovered from this surprise blow. Fate was not fully satisfied even now! Remember when Bill Bell and Funderburke were hurt at Wofford? Remember Rector suffering knee injuries that held the speedster back? Remember that Pappas never played the last few games because of an injury.

However badly Fate and Fortune and the Army played with us, the Catamounts gave a fine account of themselves in every game as anyone can bear witness who watched the boys game after game. Out weighed in every game our linemen still fought on, giving their all: Remember the good work of Co-Captains Fred Henry and Roy Church? Recall the good playing of Pappas, "Babe" Howell, Harvey, and Terry Swanger in the line? Recall the running of Rector, Garrison and the quarterbacking of Lewis, playing his first year of ball?

TOM YOUNG
Head Coach

With Tom it is the game—to fight hard always, to win if possible. But with Tom it's more than the game: it's the boy and the school. A clean game. A fine boy. And a good school. That's Tom.

Catamount Sports Roundup . . .

Fate and Fortune, Accident, and the Army took their toll of the Catamounts and the result was disastrous for the '53 football season. However, as essential and necessary as winning and the desire to win is to a good athletic contest, all does not rise or fall on win-lost basis! One recalls Rector's 68 yard run against Lenoir Rhyne, and Henry's 60 yard punt return against Wofford, and Garrison's 50 yard dash against Emory & Henry. And those of us who saw the glorious first half of the East Carolina game in which the Cats held the mighty Pirates to a 7-7 tie. One will not forget that first half nor the fine spirit of players and student supporters then. Looking back one seems to feel that these moments of glory in an elsewhere dark night are forecasts of greater things to come. There will be more stars for more victories when the next football season rolls around. The Extra Point conquered the CATS in game score only. The true Western Carolina Spirit goes on: there will be a brighter day—TOMORROW!

EDITOR'S PREDICTIONS FOR FIFTY-FOUR

According to your Editor's view of things from the sidelines at Spring Practice, something is going to happen in the Fall of '54 to the Catamount's chances of culling the losing jinx and riding the winning horse for awhile. He has seen this something not in the stars, not in a crystal ball, not in the tea leaves, nor in a Fortune Teller's Tent. He has seen this something as he watched Spring Practice, and this something is nothing less than the signs of new strength, new power, which will lift the moral of the Catamounts, which in turn will lift the losing jinx from off their backs, and should produce that ringing of the Old Bell by Joyner—which means Victory in '54.

More About The Cats . . .

Now let us consider the facts and the evidence for this optimistic Spring Bud that should bloom in the Fall. This Fall the team will be in its second year of the T: more experienced and stronger in this effective system of playing. Then consider the new strength brought to the team by the return of Bob Lee, quarterback, and Joe Pressley, tackle. And then Tommy Lewis and Hubert Edwards with a year's experience under their belts will bring new strength to the backfield and line, respectively. And the line generally looks stronger, sturdier, more like that dream stone wall that every Coach hopes for. The old boys look fine too: Winter has done them no harm. With Rector, Garrison, Pattillo, and C. Swanger all returning, the backfield should indeed produce the points for Victory! Points For Victory! Remember '53? And those Extra Point defeats? That is not likely to occur in '54: the reason: Bob Kuykendall and Joe Pressley—both will be the Artist of the Extra Point by the Fall of '54. All, I tell you, looks good: the return of old boys, the improvement of last year's team, the power in the backfield, and the tightening of the line—no playing out of position this year.

The stars and the crystal gazers may say otherwise, but this Spring Bud of new strength now showing itself in Spring Practice—this Hope of Spring can bloom into only one thing in the Fall of '54—Victory for the Catamounts.

Your Editor hath spoken! The horse is being saddled!!

NING STREAK

A pre-season look at the Cats, minus a potential 54 points per game in Ron Rogers, Cecil McCormick and Ned Straehla, found the outlook rather dismal with only Jim Jordan and Bob Ray of the previous season's starters around, it looked as if the Cats would be lucky to have a 50-50 record. However, Coach Jim Gudger was not to be denied as he molded his boys into a real conference threat.

The starting lineup consisted of Jim Jordan, a 6' 5" sophomore from Lexington as the first string center. Bob Ray, 6' 3" junior from Barnardsville and Herman Shamel, a 6' 5" junior from Winston-Salem provided a pair of sharp-shooting forwards. The guard slots were filled by Captain Numa Martin a 6' 1" senior from Leaksville and speedy Dwaine Simpson, a 5' 10" junior from Jacksonville, North Carolina.

Few will forget the fast and furious ball which the Cats played, in beating East Carolina College, a then undefeated team, nor will many forget the great shot hit by Jan Sisk, as the buzzer sounded, which beat Atlantic Christian. These were but a few of the memories in an exciting season.

Jim Jordan, center, was picked as athlete of the week by the Greensboro Daily News, after he had scored 116 points in one week against four opponents. Jordan finished the season with a 20 point average. Bob Ray, a great competitor, was also picked on the All-Conference Team. Bob, whose specialty was a driving lay-up shot and a deadly jump shot, finished the season with a 16 point average. Much needed reserve strength was supplied by Ronnie Swartzel and Tommy Williams, a couple of stellar freshmen, who according to Gudger show great promise for years to come.

The objectives of the Intramural Program are to provide for all students opportunities to participate in wholesome recreation; to provide opportunities for all students to engage in competitive activities during leisure time; to provide a program of activities which will contribute to the social, mental, and physical development of the students; to provide a program of activities which will subject the students to group spirit, enthusiasm, and loyalty.

Awards will be presented to the students winning the championship in the various individual sports. All-star teams are formed to participate in the group activities. The outstanding participants in the Men's Intramural Program and the outstanding participant in the Woman's Intramural Program will receive awards during Graduating Exercises. These awards will be based upon: winning the championship in the individual and team sports, runner-up in the individual and team sports, the number of contests participated in during the year, and the contributions made to the entire Intramural Program.

The Name Doesn't Matter

Some people say we should get a new name for it! But whether we call it free enterprise, American way of life, or profit - and - loss system, the name doesn't matter as long as we understand that it means hope, decency, courage, dignity and education.

Change the name if you like, but be ever alert against those who would change or destroy the meaning!
